

ESTATING

PRODUCT MANAGER SECONDARY MARKET (M/F/D)

Why Estating?

Do you have the aim giving everybody the ability to access attractive property, not limited to their place of origin nor their financial strength? Then don't stop reading, you have found us!

We want to change the world by democratizing and disrupting the access to the property market and offer its advantages to all.

We will scale fast. While it begins with qualified investors this is only the start. Estating's goal is to create wealth for all. Extending the advantages of investing in properties to the retail saver and eventually the un-invested, wherever they are and with whatever level of investment they wish to make.

Estating's aim is to create a wealthier society. If you have the interest and the talent to help us achieve that faster, have a down to earth attitude, like getting remarkable things done while having fun then we would like to hear from you.

What will you do?

You will be responsible for the design and implementation of our secondary market activities. You will build the "MVP", which is a mobile and web application with a property valuation and a "window-to-the market" functionality to allow investors to resale their investments.

You will closely work together with our Distribution, Operations, Engineering and C-level team. In this special case you will directly report to the CEO.

Your key responsibilities:

- Defining product vision, roadmap and growth opportunities
- Directing the vision to the stakeholders throughout the project
- Leading the planned product, releasing plans and setting the expectation for delivery of new functionalities
- Researching and analyzing market, the users, and the roadmap for the product

What qualifications do you need?

- You have a proven ability of creating product roadmap strategies
- You have a proven track record of managing projects and bringing products live
- You have excellent communication skills
- You have a strong understanding of the real estate and/or the financial markets
- You are a hands-on doer not afraid of getting your hands dirty
- You have a “getting things done” mentality
- You speak business fluent English (our company language), speaking German and/or any other language is a strong plus

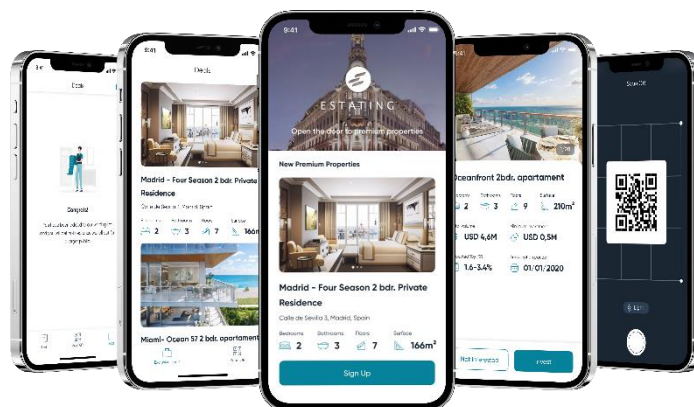

What do we offer?

We don't want to start here with the usual fresh fruits and free drinks like anybody else. We have much better to offer!

- We are a really experienced and international team of digital-savvy finance experts and key executives with successful start-up know-how united by the mission to create a win for society.
- We are flexible regarding remote work. But if you wish to work from our office, we are based very centrally in Berlin in a beautiful one. You are always welcome there.
- Estating is a founder-driven flat hierarchy organization where you will have an impact from day one.
- We are offering a competitive salary.

Does this sound interesting?

We are looking forward to your application to founders.estating@estating.com with your CV, a 60 seconds video introduction, your possible start date, and your salary expectations.
