

ESTATING

JOB PROFILE – DISTRIBUTION SPECIALIST (M/F/D)

Why Estating?

Do you have the aim giving everybody the ability to access attractive property, not limited to their place of origin nor their financial strength? Then don't stop reading, you have found us!

We want to change the world by democratizing and disrupting the access to the property market and offer its advantages to all.

We will scale fast. While it begins with qualified investors this is only the start. Estating's goal is to create wealth for all. Extending the advantages of investing in properties to the retail saver and eventually the un-invested, wherever they are and with whatever level of investment they wish to make.

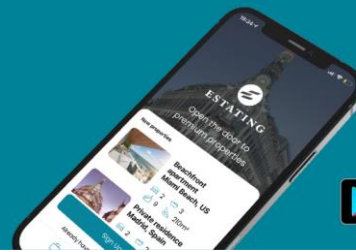

Estating's aim is to create a wealthier society. If you have the interest and the talent to help us achieve that faster, have a down to earth attitude, like getting remarkable things done while having fun then we would like to hear from you.

What will you do?

You will address client needs and support front relationship managers on the process, regulatory compliance, selected tools and quality assurance. You will report directly to the CPO.

Your key responsibilities:

- Act as partners to relationship managers and support them proactively in new and existing client and partner relationships
- Be the point of entry for partners and clients for administrative, regulatory, selected tools and quality assurance related topics
- Provide clients and partners with superior process services (e.g. client on-boarding, administrative support, Q&A)
- Offer first-class solutions by providing services and recommending solutions that meet specific client needs and requirements
- Support of smooth information flow in and out of the front roles and tools

What qualifications do you need?

- Ideally you are a trained financial service provider professional (Bankkaufmann/-frau)
- You have a first experience in wealth management front office or support function
- You have an affinity for client interactions
- Real estate experience is a plus
- You speak business fluent English (which is our company language) German or an additional language (e.g., Spanish, French, Russian) is a strong advantage

What do we offer?

We don't want to start here with the usual fresh fruits and free drinks like anybody else. We have much better to offer!

- We are a really experienced and international team of digital-savvy finance experts and key executives with successful start-up know-how united by the mission to create a win for society.
- We are flexible regarding mobile work. But if you wish to work from our office, we are based very centrally in Berlin in a beautiful one. You are always welcome there.
- Estating is a founder-driven flat hierarchy organization where you will have an impact from day one.
- We are offering a very competitive salary.

Does this sound interesting?

We are looking forward to your application to founders.estating@estating.com with your CV, a 60 seconds video introduction, your possible start date, and your salary expectations.

