

ESTATING

JOB PROFILE – SENIOR LEGAL COUNSEL (M/F/D)

Why Estating?

Do you have the aim giving everybody the ability to access attractive property, not limited to their place of origin nor their financial strength? Then don't stop reading, you have found us!

We want to change the world by democratizing and disrupting the access to the property market and offer its advantages to all.

We will scale fast. While it begins with qualified investors this is only the start. Estating's goal is to create wealth for all. Extending the advantages of investing in properties to the retail saver and eventually the un-invested, wherever they are and with whatever level of investment they wish to make.

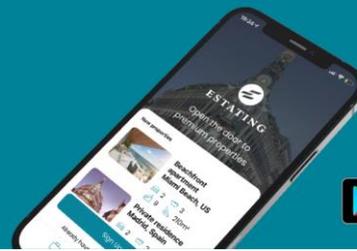

Estating's aim is to create a wealthier society. If you have the interest and the talent to help us achieve that faster, have a down to earth attitude, like getting remarkable things done while having fun then we would like to hear from you.

What will you do?

You will be the single point of contact for all legal issues for our Luxembourg and German operations. You will deal with various questions in the field of capital markets, real estate and general corporate law, with a focus on securitization, financial regulation and supervisory law, corporate law, data protection law, real estate, as well as general civil and contractual law.

Your key responsibilities:

- Negotiating and drafting of contracts in the legal areas mentioned above
- Providing strategic advice to further develop Estating's business model
- Providing legal advice and support for Estating's various business areas, both in day-to-day business and preparation of legal opinions
- Coordinating external counsel and professional advisers
- Supervision and case management of litigation and dispute resolution
- Maintaining knowledge-sharing systems and promoting awareness of legal topics relevant to the company
- Developing and overseeing legal risk management processes

What qualifications do you need?

- At least 5 years professional experience with a recognised law firm or equivalent in-house experience, obtained in an equivalent financial services firm
- Demonstrable affinity for the FinTech industry, innovative investment solutions and financial products
- Fully qualified lawyer with both state examinations (or equivalent)
- Profound knowledge of banking and banking supervision, capital markets law, corporate law and contract design
- Ability to find solutions to complex tasks and processes and make pragmatic recommendations for action
- Experience in coordinating with external stakeholders and proven track record of effective communication with internal stakeholders
- Practice-oriented and well-versed in presenting and convincing conversation partners with practice-oriented solutions
- Full fluency in written and spoken English. German is a plus, additional major languages a further advantage.
- Experience in legal risk management is a plus

What do we offer?

We don't want to start here with the usual fresh fruits and free drinks like anybody else. We have much better to offer!

- We are a really experienced and international team of digital-savvy finance experts and key executives with successful start-up know-how united by the mission to create a win for society.
- We are flexible regarding remote work. But if you wish to work from our office, we are based very centrally in Berlin in a beautiful one. You are always welcome there.
- Estating is a founder-driven flat hierarchy organization where you will have an impact from day one.
- We are offering a very competitive salary.

Does this sound interesting?

We are looking forward to your application to founders.estating@estating.com with your CV, a 60 seconds video introduction, your possible start date, and your salary expectations.
